"Self-centeredness is a poison to my emotional system. It frustrates my every effort toward a comfortable and happy existence. A terrible chain reaction begins. Fear sets in. Anger, resentment, and self-pity become my guiding forces. My only escape is to put this awful selfishness aside and become involved with the world around me."

December 1979

"The Root of Our Troubles," Emotional Sobriety

"The ideal of AA, however short we may be of it personally, is a thing of beauty and perfection. It is a Power greater than ourselves which has lifted us out of the quicksand and set us safe on shore."

AA Co-Founder, Bill W., May 1946
"Safe Use of Money", The Language of the Heart

"Every older AA shudders when he remembers the names of persons he once condemned; people he confidently predicted would never sober up; persons he was sure ought to be thrown out of AA for the good of the movement. Now that some of these very persons have been sober for years, and may be numbered among his best friends, the old-timer thinks to himself, 'What if everybody had judged these people as I once did? What if AA had slammed the door in their faces? Where would they be now?'"

AA Co-Founder, Bill W., August 1946
"Who Is a Member of Alcoholics Anonymous?,"

"Sometimes, the only place on earth that makes any sense to me is a meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous."
