Get on the Road to Detroit!

Momentum for the 2020 world conference in Detroit, Michigan is building as alcoholics from around the country launch the Road to Detroit, a series of annual conferences that are designed to build enthusiasm and attendance for the international convention.

The first conference is July 1-3 in New Orleans, Louisiana and will include speakers, a 4th step workshop, and meetings. After New Orleans, the Road to Detroit will travel to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, in 2017; St. Louis, Missouri, in 2018; Akron, Ohio, in 2019; and Detroit in 2020.

Each year leading up to Detroit, newcomers and old timers alike will be coming together, bringing others along in the process, to share what they've found and keep the momentum going.

A few of us recently went to New Orleans to spread the word about the July conference and were overwhelmed by the enthusiasm and excitement for AA we encountered. People quickly volunteered to help out, and alcoholics in New Orleans and from around the country are working to finalize plans.

To find out more and sign up for the Road to Detroit newsletter,

Visit www.roadtodetroit.org.

Email to roadtodetroit2020@gmail.com, or

Call Alex S. at (650) 787-0828.

The New Orleans conference will be held at the Knights of Columbus, 6254 Vicksburg Street, in the Christopher Room.
