I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that, I am responsible.

"Today I can look upon myself and others with understanding, acceptance, forgiveness, and love ... Recovery is a wonderland."

Brooklyn, N.Y., July 2010
"Recovery Is a Wonderland," Emotional

"I found a new definition of sanity. It was bigger than any definition I had heard concerning Step Two, but it was also bigger and better than my wildest imaginings. This sanity offered serenity, a feeling of wellness or well-being, possession of a center of balance from which to operate, and a feeling that my place in this world was just right."

Bowie, Md., February 1999
"Beyond Sanity," Step By Step

"There will be love and laughter and a delicious sense of well-being down deep inside if you will abandon yourself to the business of recovery -- not just recovery from the disease of active alcoholism, but deeper than that, recovery from a former self."

"Now I can see that sanity is steadily being restored to me so that I can use the other Steps to greater advantage."

Neoga, Ill., February 1974
"There Can Be Love and Laughter," Spiritual Awakenings II

"What keeps me sober and serene is the very act of letting go of resentments, self-pity, fear of others, and whatever else keeps my thoughts going in circles about myself."

Galveston, TX, September 1995
"The Uncertainty Principle," Spiritual Awakenings II

12 Steps of Pre-Program

1. We admitted we were powerless over nothing-that we could manage our own lives perfectly and those of anyone else who would allow us.
2. Came to believe there was no power greater than ourselves and the rest of the world was insane.
3. Made a decision to have our loved ones and friends turn their wills and lives over to our care even though they couldn't understand us at all.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral and immoral inventory of everyone we know.
5. Admitted to the whole world at large the exact nature of everyone else's wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to make others straighten up and do right.
7. Demanded other to either "shape up or ship out".
8. Made a list of all person who had harmed us and became willing to go to any lengths to get even with them all.
9. Got direct revenge on such people wherever possible, except when to do so would cost us our own lives or at the very least a jail sentence.
10. Continued to take the inventory of others and when they were wrong promptly and repeatedly to tell them about it.
11. Sought through bitching and nagging to improve our relations with others, as we couldn't understand them at all, asking only that they knuckle under and do things our way.
12. Having had a complete physical, emotional and spiritual breakdown as a result of these steps, we tried to blame it on others and to get sympathy and pity in all our affairs.
