"While I wouldn't recommend that anyone become an alcoholic, I believe that sober alcoholics living the AA way of life have been blessed with a gift. It's a gift that can't be bought, that can't be won in a lottery, that can't be stolen, forged, or rented."

Edenvale, Gauteng, South Africa, October 1996
"A Healthy Appetite for Beer,"
The Best of the Grapevine, Volume 3

"More and more we regard all who labor in the total field of alcoholism as our companions on a march from darkness into light. We see that we can accomplish together what we could never accomplish in separation and in rivalry."

AA Co-Founder, Bill W., March 1958
"On the Alcoholism Front," The Language of the Heart

"It's not the wonderful people I've met from throughout these great lands who have helped keep me sober most of the time, but those wonderful people sitting around the table in my hometown who loved me when I could not love, who waited for me to quit lying, who tolerated me when I would be part of nothing, and who never asked me to leave when I was obnoxious. Because of their love and patience, I was able to get outside of myself and make some sort of commitment to the group."

"Why Have a Home Group?" Nosh, Missouri, September 1986,
The Home Group: Heartbeat of AA

"To be open, I must believe there is something to be open to; that's what I mean by spirituality. At the very least, I need openness to my own future."

San Francisco, California, August 1995
"Practical Enlightenment," Spiritual Awakenings

"Peace and enlightenment come when you stop evaluating in terms of good or bad and merely accept all of life as it is and try to learn from it."

El Granada, California, March 1989
"A Program of Action," The Best of the Grapevine, Volume 3
