A LETTER FROM YOUR DISEASE

Just in case you forgot me, I am your Disease. I hate meetings....I hate Higher Powers...I hate your program. To all who came in contact with me, I wish you suffering and I wish you death. Allow me to introduce myself. I am the disease of alcoholism. I am cunning, baffling and powerful. That's me. I have killed millions and I'm pleased.

I love to catch you with the element of surprise. I love pretending I am your friend and lover. I have given you comfort, haven't I? Wasn't I there when you wanted to die; didn't you call on me? I was there. I love to make you hurt. I love to make you cry. Better yet, I love to make you so numb you can neither hurt nor cry.

When you feel nothing at all, that's my true gratification. And all that I ask from you is long-term suffering.

I've been there for you always....when things were going right in your life you invited me. You said you didn't deserve these good things, and I was the only one who would agree with you.

Together we were able to destroy all the good things in your life. People don't take me seriously. They take strokes seriously, heart attacks, even diabetes they take seriously. FOOLS! Without help those things would not be possible.

I am such a hated disease and yet I do come invited.

So many have chosen me over reality and peace. More than you hate me. I hate all of you who have the Alcoholics Anonymous Program, your meetings, your higher power.

All of these things weaken me, and I can't function in the manner I am accustomed to.

Now I must lie here quietly. You don't see me but I am growing bigger than ever.

When you only exist, I can live....when you live, I may only exist.

But I am here....

And until we meet again, if we meet again, I wish you suffering and death!

Sincerely,
YOUR DISEASE
