Public Information/Cooperation with the Professional Community (PI/PCP). The primary function of the local PI/CPC committee is to create and enhance the awareness of Alcoholics Anonymous within the public and professional communities. This is accomplished by several means: through the circulation and distribution of AA literature and meeting schedules within the public library systems; distribution of AA literature through workshops, seminars and conferences; selected mailings to judges and key members of the legal and professional community.

"The most important thing AA has given me is the chance to get to know someone I never knew -- myself."
