THINGS WE CANNOT CHANGE

Our AA community has lost two very active members this month. Both W. T "Doughty" and JD. D have gone to on the Big Meeting. They were both very active in the Baton Rouge area and they will be greatly missed.

“One day it will be left to the young people now in our Fellowship to carry on the original spirit and traditions of AA, even though the buzz words and trends will come and go. It will be up to us to teach newcomers how to maintain the type of sobriety that achieves the promises of the Big Book and dispels some of the fables of recovery popular today. It will be up to us to help the newcomer from the street dry out, shakes and pukes and all. We will be left to teach the little things: how to sit at the front, not the back of the room, say hello to the new guy, wash coffee cups and ashtrays. One day it will be up to us to uphold the Traditions. It will be up to us to keep it simple.”

Bury St. Edmunds, England, Septembers 1994, “We Who Are Next in Line,” I am Responsible: The Hand of AA
