“Today, We enjoy a Fellowship which owes its ever increasing membership of recovering alcoholics (unprecedented in human history) to the well-wishers and combined efforts of many outside agencies and services, as well as many professionals. To these folks, we surely owe a debt of gratitude. Yet, the heart of AA remains the same, thank God, when one alcoholic reaches out to another, and we find that we can do together what none of us could do alone.”

“Sponsorship-- The Heart of AA,” Aberdeen, South Dakota, September 1991, In Our Own Words

Information from Your Central Office:

A loyal member of AA in Baton Rouge purchased a copy of the first printing of the first edition of Alcoholic Anonymous (the Big Book). In 2008, it was donated to the Central Office. The prior Office Manager kept the book safe. With his death several years ago, his sponsor retained possession of the book. After much discussion over the past 18 months, it was decided that the most prudent course is for the book to be donated to the LSU Special Collections where it can be most safely stored and also made available to those interested in seeing it. It has recently been cataloged and processed by LSU.

The note from them says:

“This book will be available for anyone in the public to use in our reading room during our regular business hours, generally from 9-5 Monday through Friday. (You can find a full list of our hours and other reading room policies here: <https://www.lib.lsu.edu/special>.”

Annual Big Book Study

On the weekend of July 12 th, Baton Rouge will be having its annual Big Book study. Our community is very blessed as it is in the By-Laws of the Central Office that this event will be provided free of charge for anyone who wants to attend. This year’s event will be at St. Paul Lutheran Church at 2021 Tara Blvd. The presenter will be Erin N from Little Rock. He will start Friday at 7 Pm. Saturday will start at 9 am. Lunch will be served on Saturday. If you would like to help, please contact the office at 930-0027. If any home groups would like to donate to help cover the cost, it would be greatly appreciated! We are looking forward to seeing everyone and learning something new.
