"How life looks to me depends on how I look at it. While this sounds simple, just like everything else in Alcoholics Anonymous, it requires continual practice in order to get good at it. I get better at it as each year passes. I am grateful that Alcoholics Anonymous is teaching me how to see straight, one day at a time."

"Gratitude in Action"

"Our very first problem is to accept our present circumstances as they are, ourselves as we are, and the people about us as they are. This is to adopt a realistic humility without which no genuine advance can even begin."

Bridging the Gap

"Bridging the Gap" is a service that helps individuals get to a local AA meeting on the day they get out of a treatment program or correctional facility. It consist of AA members who have volunteered to act as a temporary contact to new members. Volunteers will meet newcomers at the door of the facility, or at an AA meeting, introduce them to other AA members, make sure they get a meeting schedule with phone numbers, and try to help them find a sponsor.

If you are interested in using this service, or if you an AA member who would like to add your name to the list of temporary contacts, please get it touch with:
