Bridging the Gap

"Bridging the Gap" is a service that helps individuals get to a local AA meeting on the day they get out of a treatment program or correctional facility. It consist of AA members who have volunteered to act as a temporary contact to new members. Volunteers will meet newcomers at the door of the facility, or at an AA meeting, introduce them to other AA members, make sure they get a meeting schedule with phone numbers, and try to help them find a sponsor.

If you are interested in using this service, or if you an AA member who would like to add your name to the list of temporary contacts, please get it touch with:

"The group I joined saved my life ... For an hour, I was safe. For an hour, I had a haven among those whose fear had once been as great as my own. I did not give my fear away – they took it. They eased it from my grasp with hugs and laughter, with shared experience."
